OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

NEWS SQUIBS.

The Governor of Tennessee calls an extra session of the Legislature, on the 7th of January, to consider the condition of the country. In response to recent applications for suspension of specie payment, the Kentucky banks have determined that such a measure would afford no commercial relief, and consequently they will continue to pay specie as usual. It was understood among the Members of the Texas Legislature that they should meet on Monday last. It is expected that a convention will be held on the 8th of January. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes that Hon. Daniel E. Sickles will, at the close of this Congressional term, resume and devote himself exclusively to the practice of the law. Dr. P. Woodbury of Bedford Hillsborough county, N. H., died on the 12th inst., aged 69. He was a brother of the late Judge Levi Woodbury, eminent in his profession, and highly respected by the community where he lived. Longevity, Democracy and matrimony are the strong points of Mr. James Douglas, Coventry, Ct. He is 104; has been married over 70 years, and always voted the Democratic ticket. The Rev. Francis Herron, D. D., for nearly half a century pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh, died in that city on Thursday evening, in the 87th year of his age. As near as can be ascertained the total population of the States and Territories is 31,000,000. Therefore the ratio of representation in the House of Representatives will be about 133,000. Mr. Schubert, the long efficient clerk of the Patent office, is by law now the acting commissioner, and to him all the pending business will be transferred. There is probability of an appointment in the place of Mr. Thomas, who retired on Wednesday and entered upon the duties of Secretary of the Treasury. The surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 hold a State Convention in Columbus, on Tuesday, January 8th—the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. All old soldiers, their wives, and the widows of those who are deceased, are cordially invited. It is said that official information has been received in Washington, that Holland has made arrangements for the emancipation of the slaves in the Dutch colonies on the principle of English emancipation making compensation to the masters. The Louisiana Legislature resolved to call a Convention, and refused to send delegates to a General Convention of Southern States. The Assembly then adjourned sine die. Howell Cobb has resigned the Secretaryship of the Treasury, and Ex-Governor Thomas, of Maryland, has been appointed in his place. The Legislature of South Carolina has elected Mr. Pickens Governor after a long struggle. A disease called the horse cholera is prevailing in Bradley county, Tennessee, and the citizens have lost near a hundred head within the last three weeks by this fatal disease. Very few survive an attack of it. No remedy has been found for its cure yet. The hog cholera is also prevailing, and killing a large number of hogs. One man lost about $400 worth.

Sliding Now.

About a year ago when the Holmes County Republican was sympathizing with John Brown it said: "We hope the Northern Republic will remain firm, and if the Union must go, why, then let her slide." The Republicans of the North have stood firm, the Union is sliding, the prosperity of the country has departed, and panic holds universal dominion over the land. Matters have turned out as intimated in the extract from the Republican. We don't wish to be considered inquisitive, but we would like to know how the farmers, mechanics, tradesmen, merchants and laborers who have stood so firmly with the Republicans like it as far as they have gone?

Disruption of the Cabinet.

The resignation of Mr. Cobb was not unexpected for. He was not qualified to fill the position he occupied. He succeeded in getting the financial affairs of the government in such a horrible condition that he could no longer manage them and was forced to resign. General Cass has also resigned. This is to be regretted for he was a faithful and efficient officer. The resignation of Hon. Jacob Thompson is reported but we believe he has not yet tendered it.

Notification.

In 1838 South Carolina refused to obey the Revenue laws of the general Government. It was for nullifying these laws that she is forever disgraced, and it was for this that Gen. Jackson forced her to come to terms and respect the laws of the country. Now, in 1860, eight of the Northern States nullify the Fugitive Slave law just as much as South Carolina did the Revenue laws. When these nullifying States respect the laws of Congress it will be time for the Republicans to declare themselves in favor of law and order, but until they repeal their nullifying statutes let them not dare to say that they are a conservative, Union-loving party.

A Merry Christmas to all our friends.

"The rest of mankind."

Suppose a Case.

Let us suppose that thirty-three neighbors were to form a partnership in the farming business, and that eighteen of them league together against the other fifteen, call them scoundrels, thieves, man-stealers, bloodhounds and other choice names of this kind, steal and carry away horses, cows and other property belonging to the minority, hire preachers and stumpers to abuse the fifteen, publish newspapers to slander and revile them, interfere to prevent them from reclaiming their property, and declare that they should buy no more lands. Could the partnership continue under such a state of affairs? Well, suppose the fifteen should conclude to leave, to break up the partnership, to set up for themselves, who would be most to blame for the disruption of the community, the eighteen or fifteen?

NEWS ITEMS.

It is said that all the principal Hotels in the city of Washington, have unfurled the stars and stripes, and thus declared for the Union as it is.

Ex-Senator Chesnut writes to the Charleston Mercury that he is advised that the President will veto any force bill which Congress may pass.

Great suffering prevails at Nova Scotia, in consequence of the failure of the fishing crop. The Legislature has taken the subject in hand.

The Prince of Wales has resumed his collegiate studies at Oxford, after spending only about a week at home after his return from his American tour.

Ohio Disunionists.

On Mr. BOWEN'S resolution, providing for a committee of 33, one from each State, to devise some means whereby the existing difficulties might be arranged so as to preserve the Union and restore prosperity to the country, the following Black Republican Members of Congress from Ohio voted Nay: BASHLEY, BINGHAM, BLAKE, CARY, EDGERTON, HUTCHINS, SHERMAN, STANTON, TOMPKINS and WADE.

All the other States could muster but thirty-one traitors, less than an average of one to each State. These seven infamous men represent, we suppose, the seven heads of the Dragon of Ohio Abolitionism, or the seven vials of wrath spoken of in Revelation, or the seven Plagues with which Egypt was cursed, or the seven Devils cast out by Mary Magdalene, who having slumbered in quietude for eighteen hundred and sixty years now manifest themselves again to the world as the controlling spirits of Ohio Black Republicanism.

We are glad for the sake of this Dis that Mr. HELMICK is not among them.

The Election in Boston.

At the late municipal election in Boston the Lincoln "irrepressible conflict" candidate was beaten in every ward of the city. The majority of WRIGHTMAN, the Union candidate, is 2,400—plurality over Lincoln candidate 2,160.

This election if taken with those of the other large towns in Massachusetts, is among the signs of the times which foretell the total disruption of the "irrepressibles."

Interesting to Tax Payers.

As a matter of some little interest to the tax payers, we have been endeavoring to raise money to pay the dues which the State exacts from her citizens, we note the fact that the Public Works of Ohio, during the last year yielded $213,300.10. We could only pay here the sum of $24,457.55—leaving, in repairs, etc., $188,842.55, or nearly double more than the receipts—National Democrat.

The above is true as far as it goes, but our contemporary should have added that a responsible company offered to lease the Canals for ten years at $20,000 per year, and give ample security not only for the payment of the money but also that they would keep up repairs and return the public works in as good repair as they were in at the commencement of the lease. The Republican State officers refused to accept of this offer. They refused because by retaining the public works they were invested with a large amount of official patronage, in the way of appointing lock tenders, collectors, etc. These appointments were desired for tools, tricksters and political scavengers who could labor for the public works, and others, to vote the Republican ticket.

The Union Committee.

The Union Committee of thirty-three, appointed under the Resolution of Mr. Butler, of Va., keep their counsels to themselves. Nothing but what they have accomplished is made public. On motion of Mr. Rusk, of Arkansas, it was

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this Committee

"the existing discontent among the Southern people and the growing hostility among them to the Federal Government, are greatly to be regretted, that such discontent and hostility are not without just cause; and that any reasonable and proper Constitutional remedies and effectual guarantees of peculiar interests, as recognized by the Constitution, necessary to preserve the peace and prosperity of the Union, should be promptly and cheerfully granted."

The vote on this Resolution stood:

Ayes—Crawlin, Wilson, Window, Campbell, Love, Davis, of Maryland, Stratton, Bellow, Nelson, Egan, Taylor, Kellogg, Houston, Phelps, Rice, Hunt, Taylor, Burch, Windham, 22—22.

Nays—Adams, Ferry, Humphrey, Robinson, Tappan, Morrill, Morse, Washburne, 3—3.

Mr. Benton Davis, of Mississippi, declined to vote, and Mr. Boyce, of South Carolina, who has heretofore been present with the committee, was absent.

Postmaster General Holt, it is said, has reduced the expenses of the Post Office Department several millions of dollars.

Letter from Gen. Houston.

Gen. Sam Houston, Governor of Texas, has lately written a long letter in which he takes ground against disunion. He concludes as follows:

"I am now an aged man. My locks have become white in tolling, as I believe, for the blooded monster, New Yomg, that I might look forward to the future, feeling that whatever danger might come, my strong arm would be at hand, to defend my family, I should feel less anxiety than I do at present. The years that I will have to endure the miseries of civil war are but few. If I could feel that with the close of my career would the miseries of my race, I could share its misfortunes with patience; but to feel that the people of a revolution must continue, that war with its attendant horrors of bloodshed, rapine and devastation must be visited upon it, would embitter my last moments, and after witnessing the demolition of the best Government that ever existed, I would sink to the grave without a home of freedom would be regenerated, or our posterity, or our country, or the Union, which we have parted. Let us pause and ponder well before we take any action out of the Constitution."

Very truly yours,
SAM HOUSTON.

ANOTHER ABOLITION RAID!

One of them killed and all the Party Captured.

Stoughton, Jackson Co., Mo., Dec. 11.

Last night a party of Abolitionists, five in number, entered the residence of Morgan Walker, a large slave owner, residing southeast of this city, and demanded his slaves and his money. Walker fired and killed one of the party. The sheriff of Jackson county has gone out to bring them into this city. Morgan very taunted them in this neighborhood, a few years since.

JOHN W. REID.

[We shall not be surprised to hear that Judge Lynch has taken the case of these negro thieves and robbers, and that they will be hung, and their work will be made of them. There is ample justification for the proceeding, if, as is conjectured, these miscreants are a part of Montgomery's band, or if they are not, they are still thieves and robbers, and deserve to be hung, and their work will be made of them.
